

The following bootleg shirts were confiscated
by police at the WWE Hall of Fame event: 33 confiscated

(front)

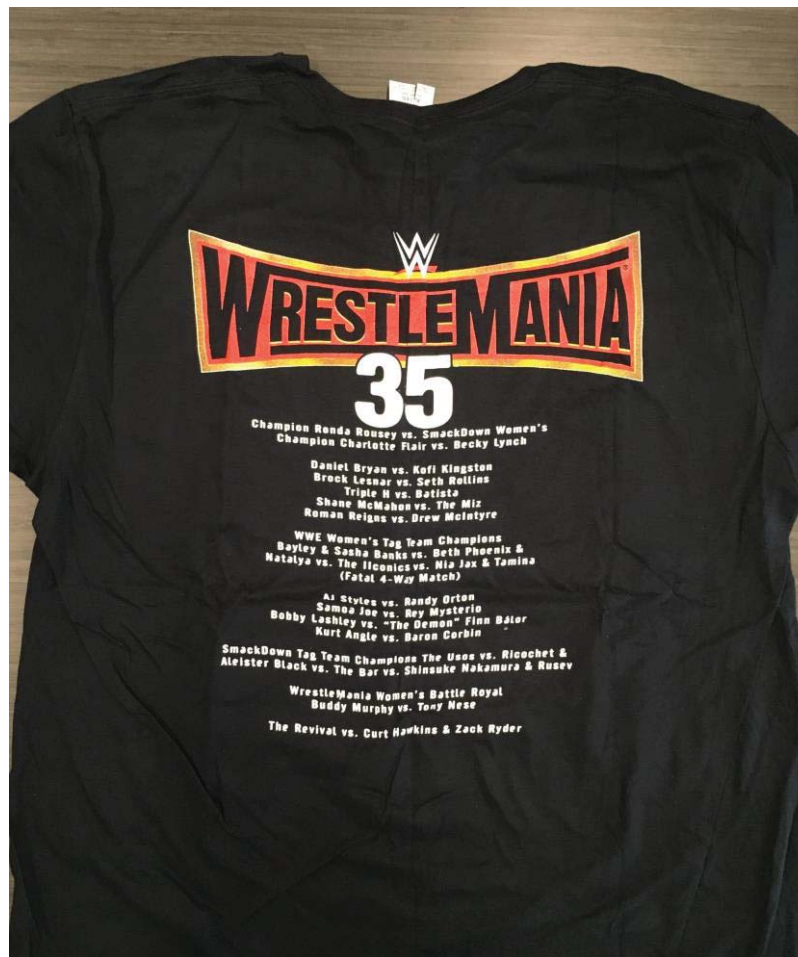

(back)

(DESIGN #1)

The following bootleg shirts were confiscated
by police at the WWE Hall of Fame event: 22 confiscated

(front)

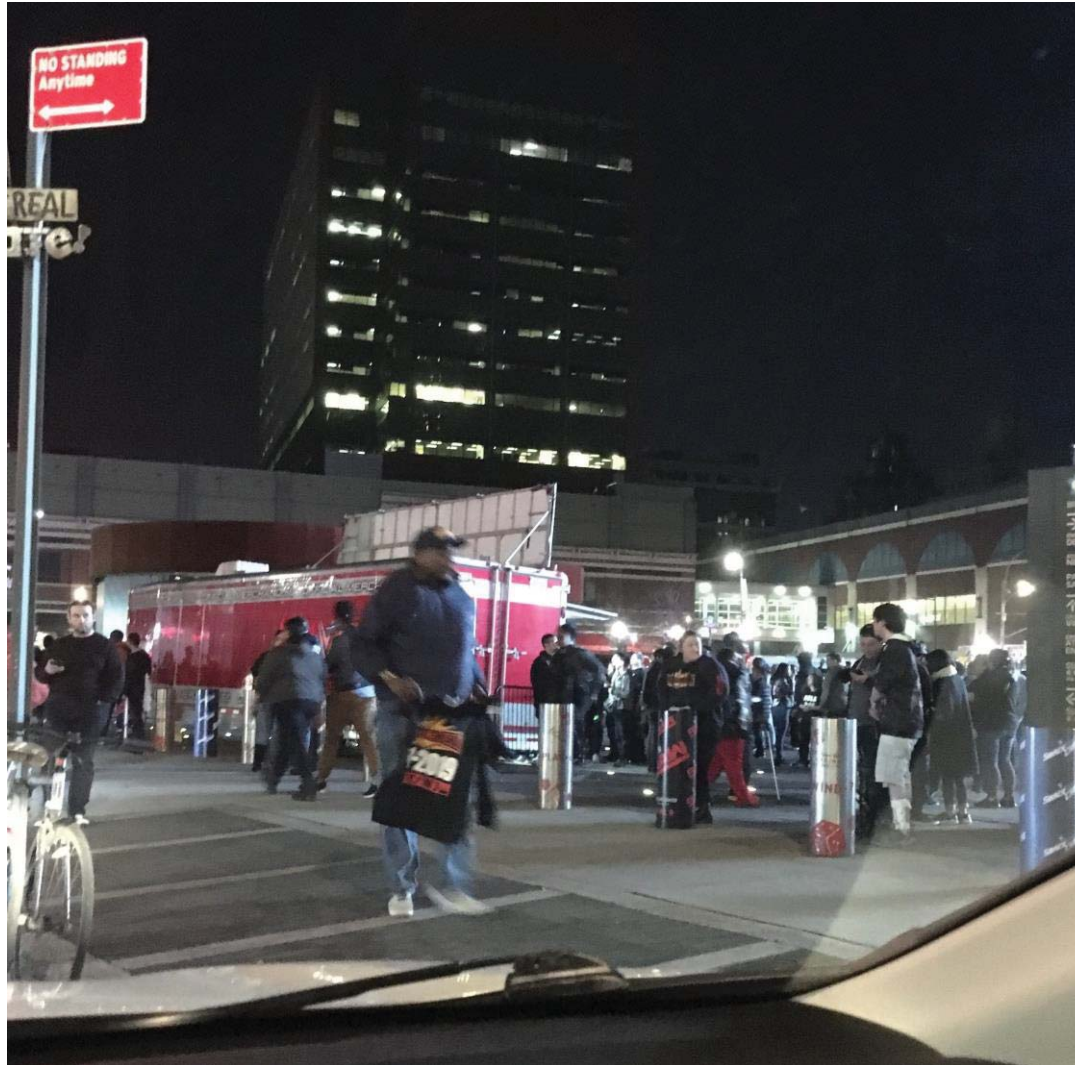

(back)

(DESIGN #2)

WWE Hall of Fame Event

Counterfeit Merchandise Seller #1: (in NY – not served)

WWE Hall of Fame Event

Counterfeit Merchandise Seller #2: (in NY – not served)

WWE Hall of Fame Event

Counterfeit Merchandise Seller #3: (in NY – not served)

WWE Hall of Fame Event

Counterfeit Merchandise Seller #4: (in NY – not served)

WWE RAW Event...

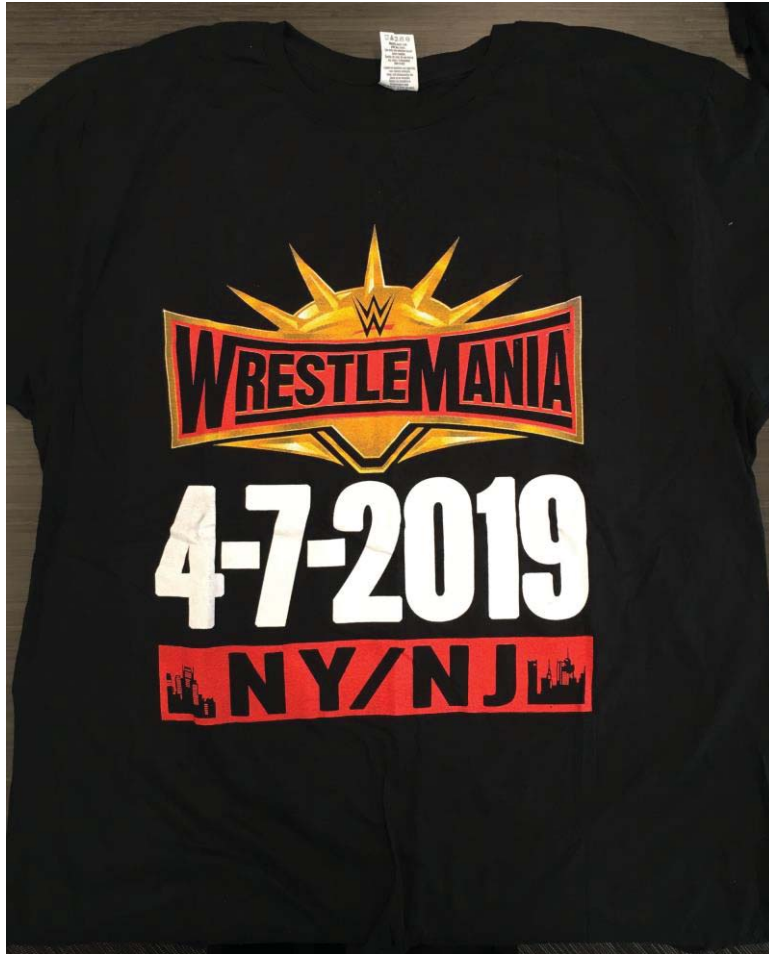

Day After WrestleMania in New York

- Located at the Barclays Center – Brooklyn, NY
- Live wrestling event that takes place every Monday night throughout the entire year.

FIVE bootleggers were selling counterfeit
WWE merchandise at this event.

The following bootleg shirts were confiscated
by police at the WWE RAW event: 18 confiscated

(front)

(back)

(DESIGN #2)

The following bootleg shirts were confiscated
by police at the WWE RAW event: 3 confiscated

(front)

(back)

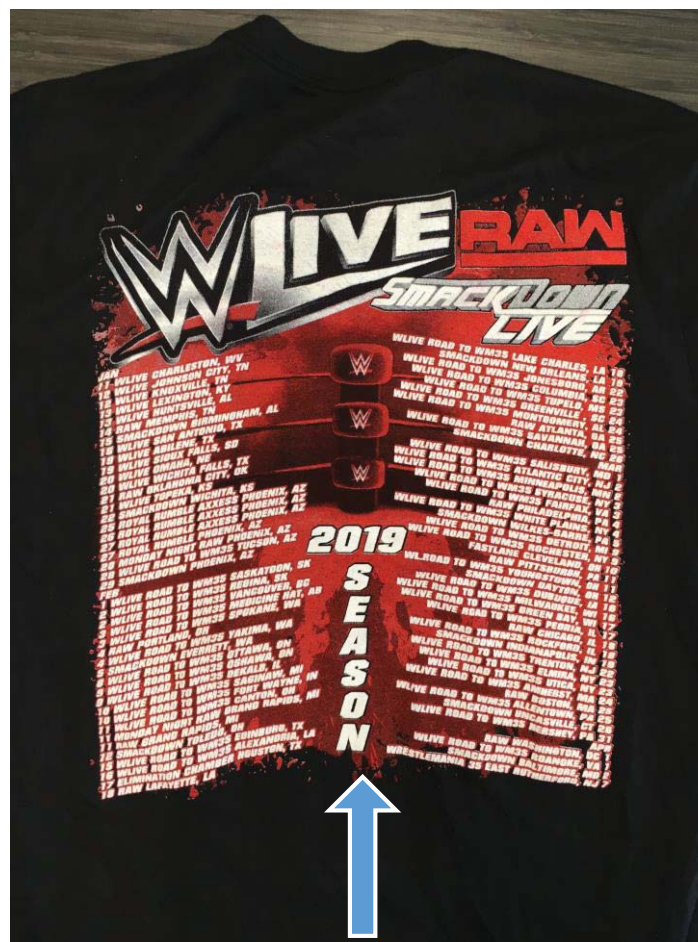

(DESIGN #1)

The following bootleg shirts were confiscated
by police at the WWE RAW event: 47 confiscated

(front)

(print quality is actually blurry)

(back)

(list of WWE scheduled events)

(This identical bootleg shirt was being sold in Lexington, Kentucky on January 23, 2019.)

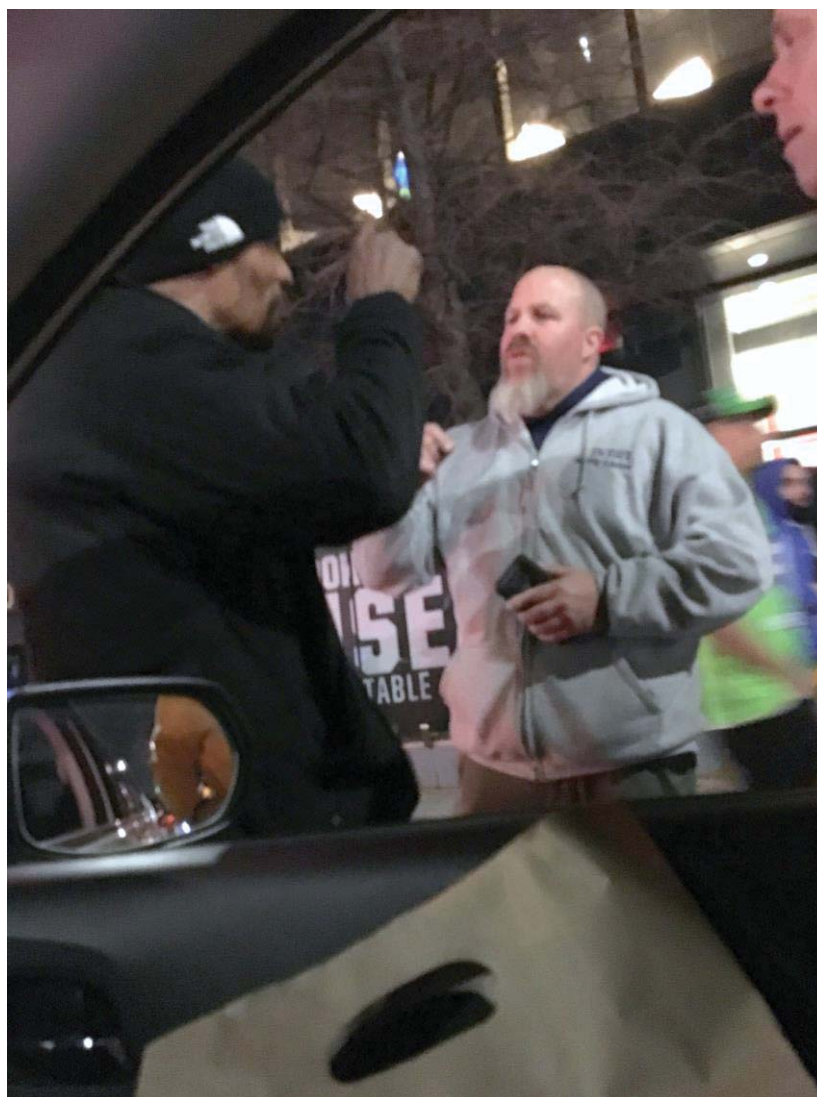

The following bootleg shirts were confiscated
by police at the WWE RAW event: 40 confiscated

(front)

WWE RAW Event

Counterfeit Merchandise Seller #1: (in NY – not served)

WWE RAW Event

Counterfeit Merchandise Seller #2: (in NY – not served)

WWE RAW Event

Counterfeit Merchandise Seller #3: (in NY – not served)

SUMMARY

SUMMARY BOOTLEG REPORT:

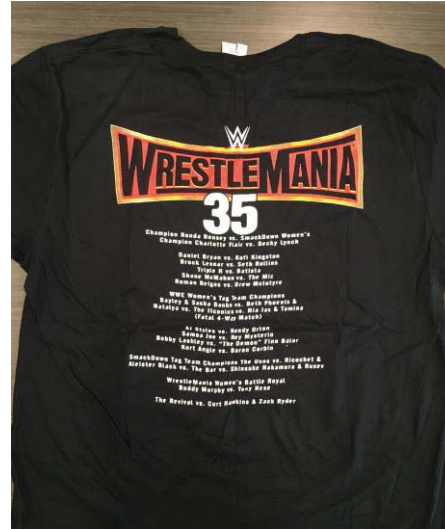

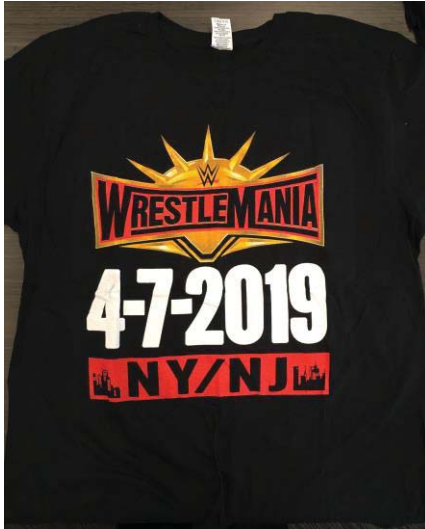

(Design #1)

This is NOT a shirt that WWE is selling.

This identical shirt design (front & back) was being sold at WrestleMania by counterfeiters from the following locations:

- Bronx, New York
 - New York, New York
 - Columbia, South Carolina
-
- 477 of these identical shirts were being sold by 9 different bootleggers at WrestleMania
 - 33 of these identical shirts were being sold at WWE Hall of Fame
 - 3 of these identical shirts were being sold at WWE RAW

SUMMARY BOOTLEG REPORT:

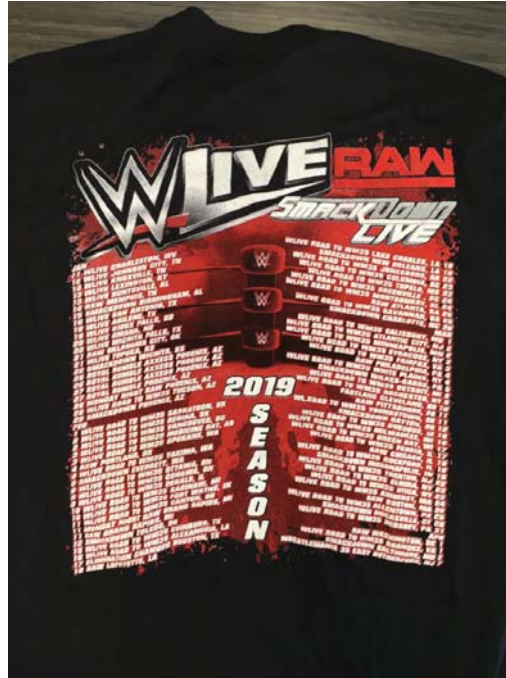

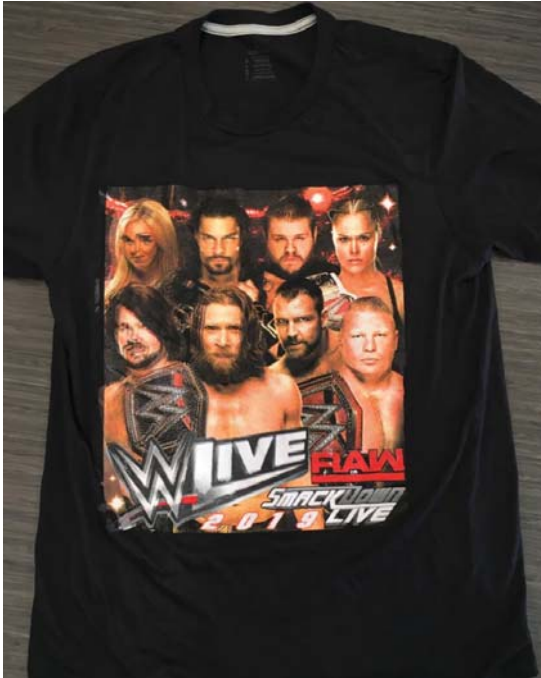

(Design #2)

This is NOT a shirt that WWE is selling.

This identical shirt design (front & back) was being sold at WrestleMania by counterfeiters from the following locations:

- Bronx, New York
 - New York, New York
-
- 89 of these identical shirts were being sold by 3 different bootleggers at WrestleMania
 - 22 of these identical shirts were being sold at WWE Hall of Fame
 - 18 of these identical shirts were being sold at WWE RAW

SUMMARY BOOTLEG REPORT:

This is NOT a shirt that WWE is selling.

This identical shirt design (front & back) was being sold by counterfeiters in following locations:

- Lexington, Kentucky on January 13, 2019
- Brooklyn, New York on April 8, 2019

TOTAL NUMBER OF COUNTERFEIT SHIRTS SEIZED DURING WRESTLEMANIA® EVENTS

- 566 shirts seized under the TRO during WrestleMania under the TRO
- 163 shirts confiscated by police in New York during WWE Hall of Fame and WWE RAW events

Total: 729 counterfeit shirts

We also know we'll be "hit"
throughout the year when the police presence is not so prevalent...

The following slides depict counterfeit merchandise we have encountered already at our other live events leading up to WrestleMania...

Bridgeport, CT (7/8/18): Counterfeit shirts being sold by four individuals.

(front)

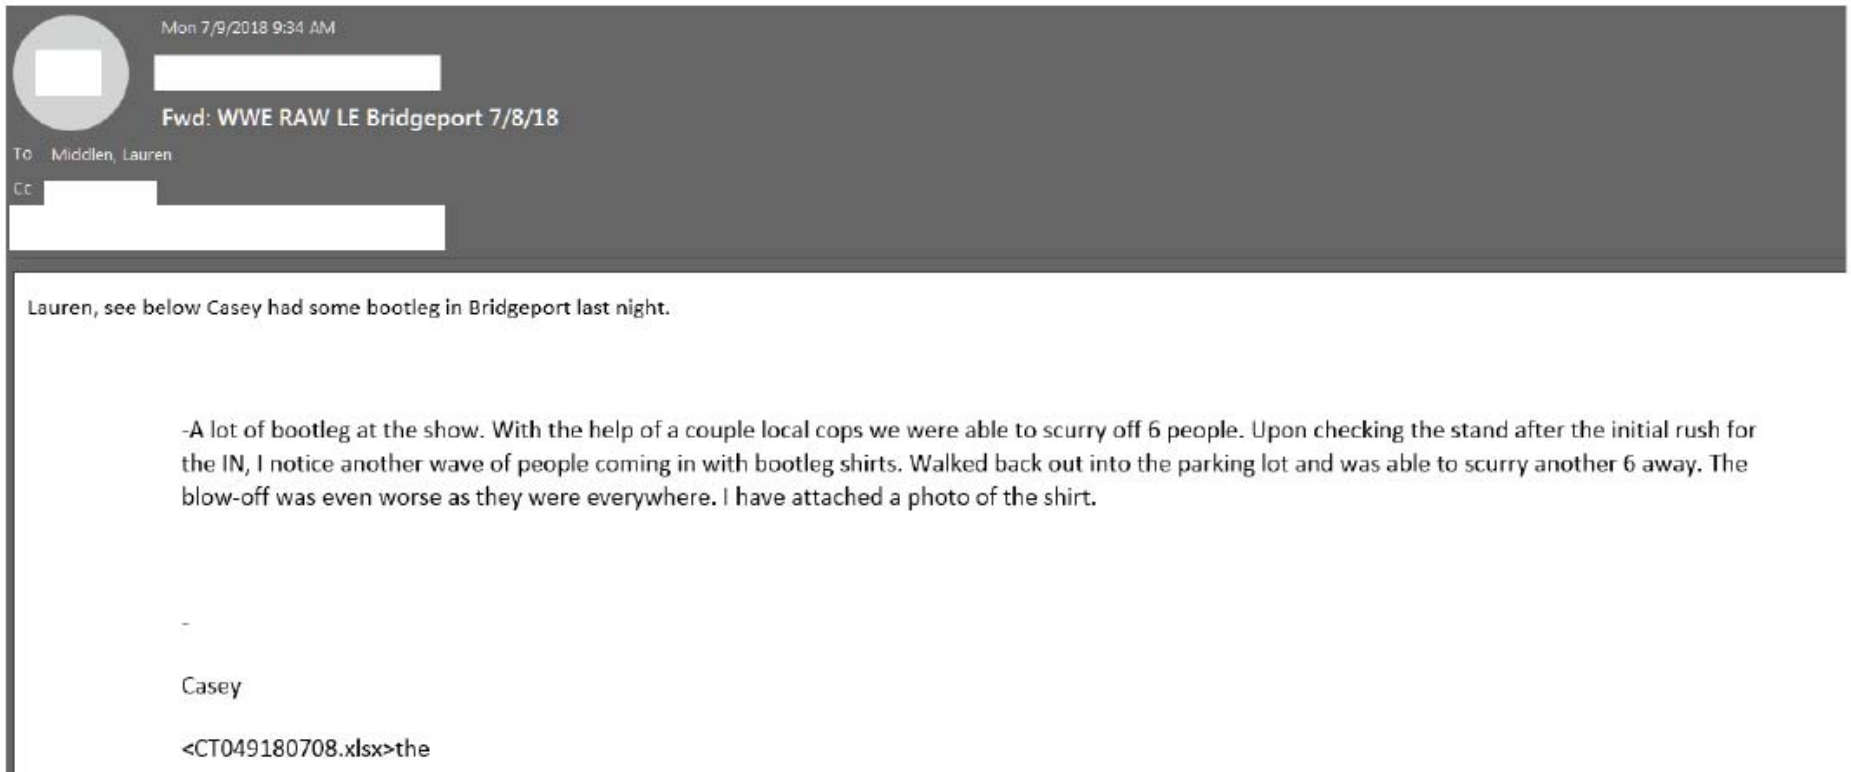

(back)

(same bootleg shirt being sold in Boston, MA the next night and in Brooklyn, NY a month later)

For Bridgeport, CT seizure, report from local law enforcement:

“A lot of bootleg at the show. With the help of a couple of local cops we were able to scurry off 6 people. Upon checking the stand after the initial rush for the IN, I notice another wave of people coming in with bootleg shirts. Walked back out into the parking lot and was able to scurry another 6 away. The blow-off was even worse as they were everywhere...”

Bridgeport, CT (7/8/18): In addition to the many sellers outside the venue, this individual was selling inside the arena:

Boston, MA (7/9/18): Counterfeit shirts being sold by many individuals.

(front)

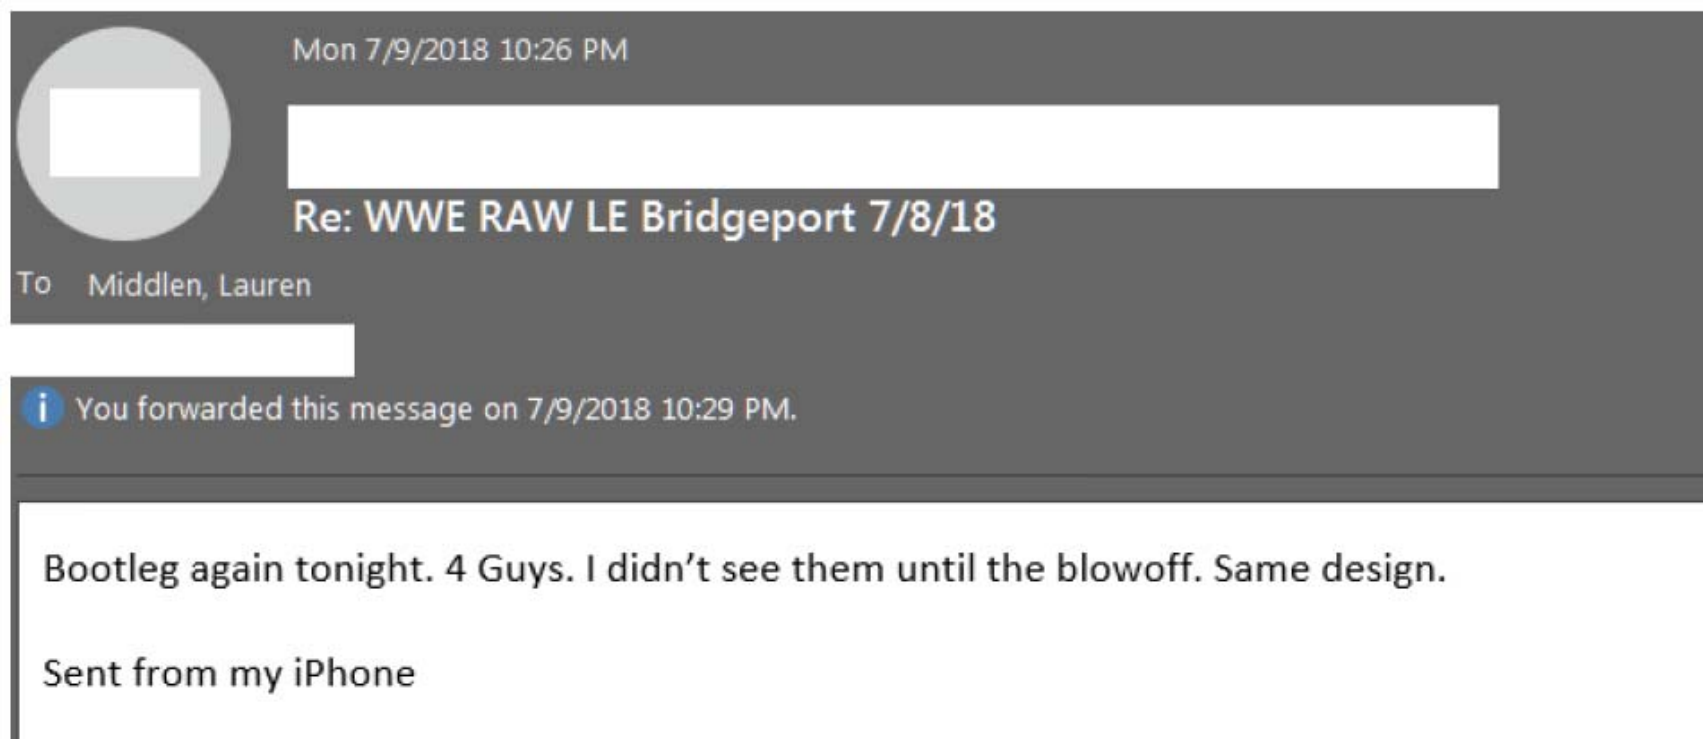

(back)

(same bootleg shirt being sold in Bridgeport, CT the night before and in Brooklyn, NY a month later)

For Boston, MA seizure, report from local law enforcement:

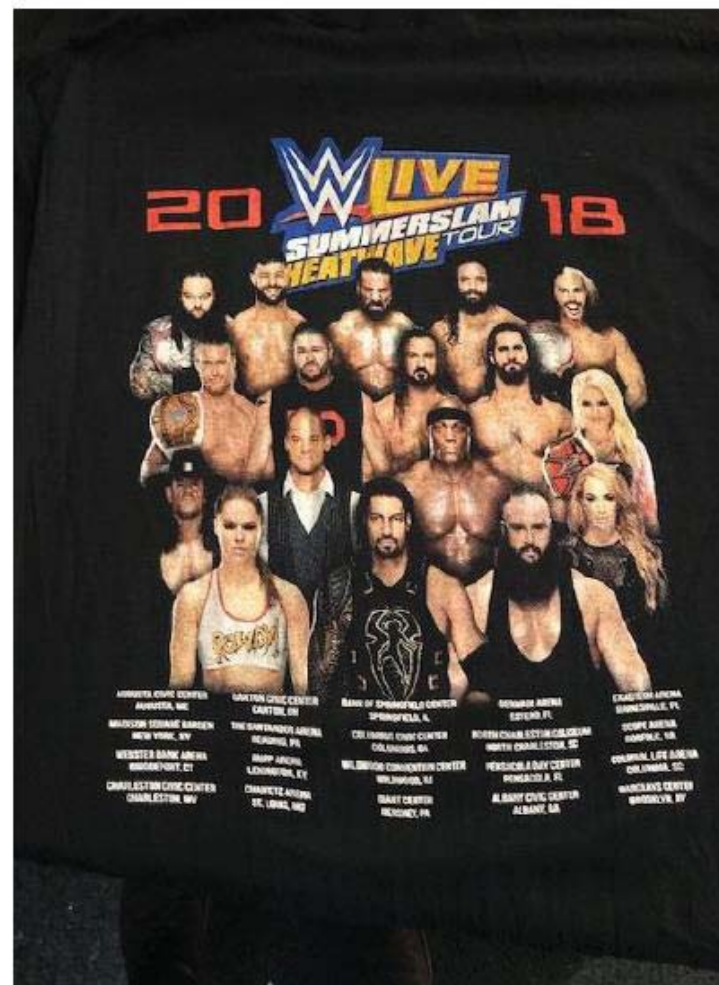

“Bootleg again tonight. 4 Guys. I didn’t see them until the blowoff. Same design.”

Brooklyn, NY (8/19/18): Counterfeit shirts being sold by several individuals:

(front)

(back)

(same bootleg shirt being sold in Bridgeport, CT and Boston, MA a month earlier)

Los Angeles, CA (11/17/18): Counterfeit shirts being sold by five individuals:

(front)

(back)

Lexington, KY (1/13/19): Counterfeit shirts being sold by several individuals:

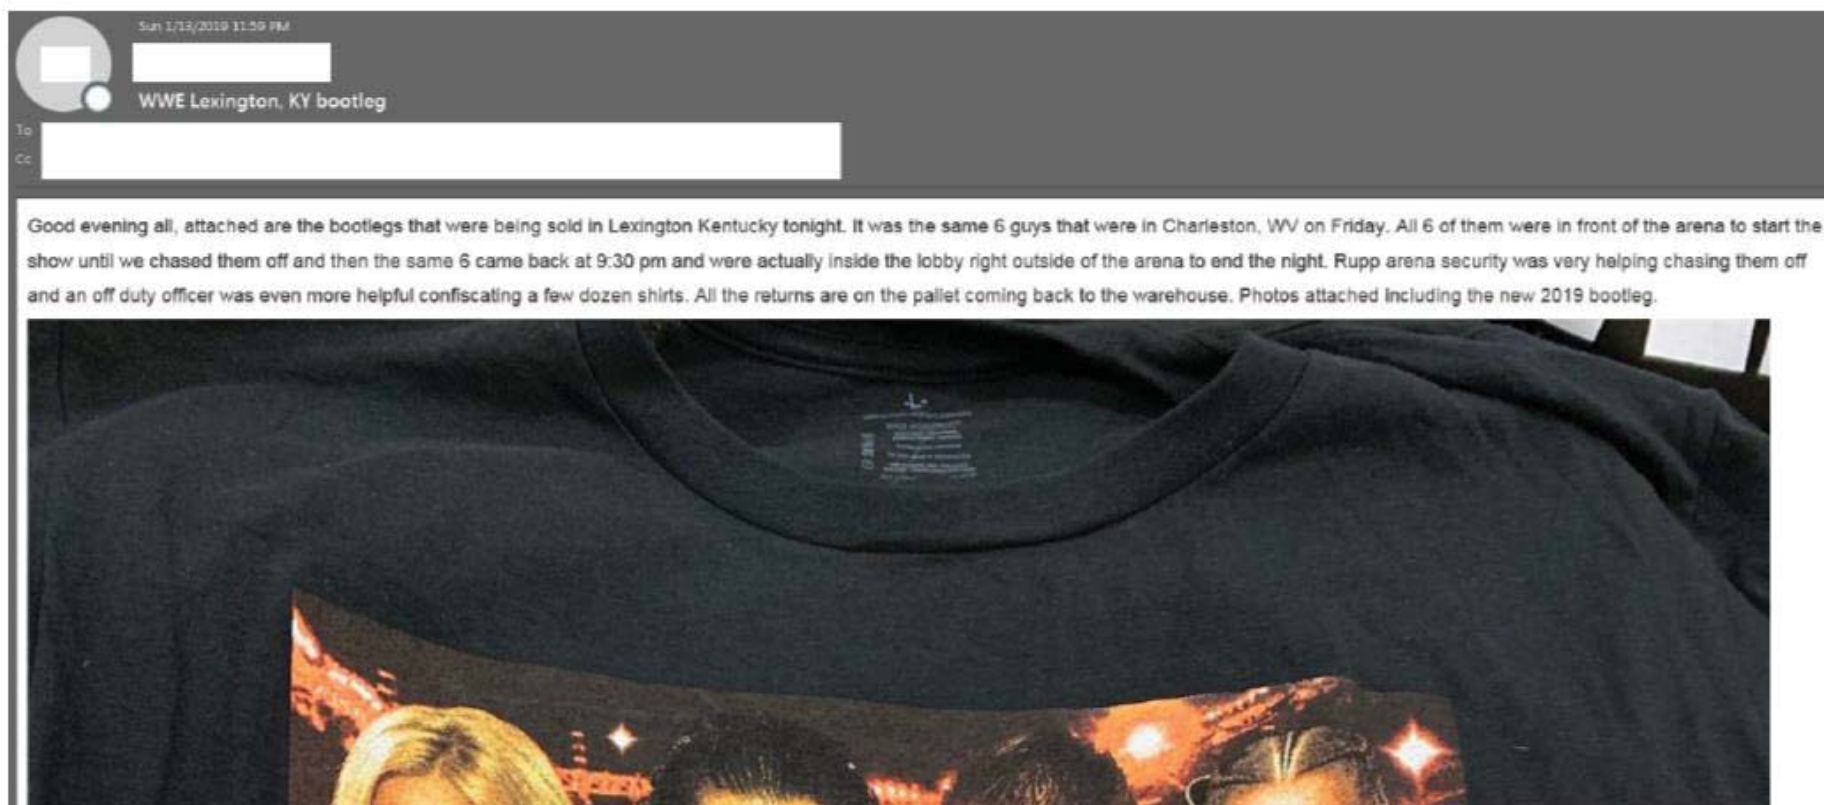

(front)

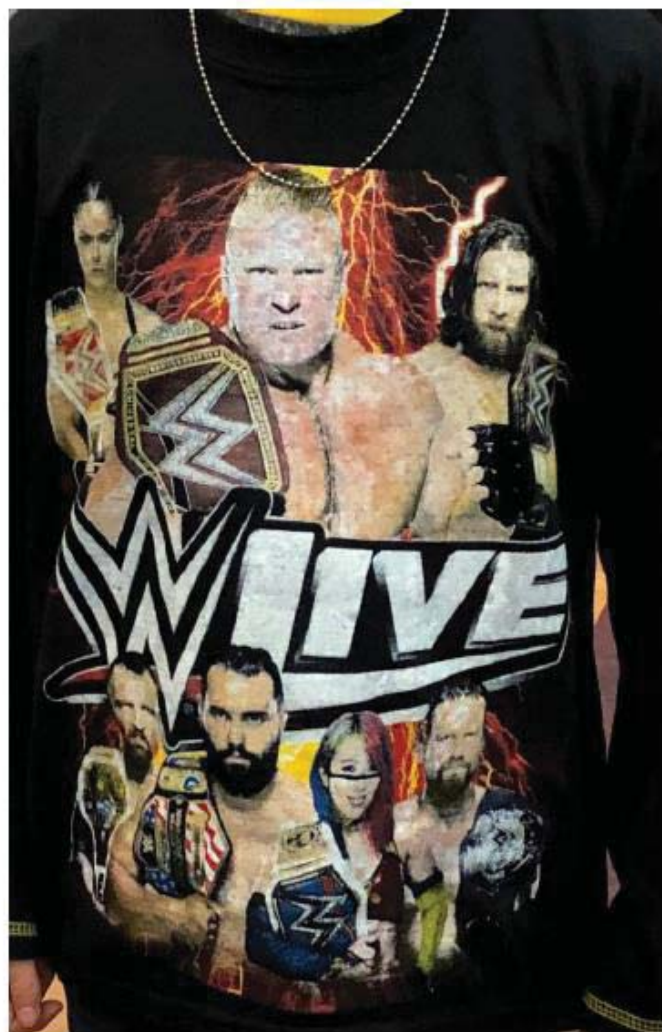

(back)

For Lexington, KY seizure, report from local law enforcement:

“... attached are the bootlegs that were being sold in Lexington, KY tonight. It was the same 6 guys that were in Charleston, WV on Friday. All 6 of them were in front of the arena to start the show until we chased them off and then the same 6 came back at 9:30pm and were actually inside the lobby right outside the arena to end of the night...”

Jacksonville, FL (2/8/19): Counterfeit shirts being sold by SIX individuals, each carrying a large duffel bag full of these counterfeit shirts:

(front)

(back)

COUNTERFEIT PRODUCT SOLD AT WWE LIVE EVENTS:

- Traditionally sized for children to wear or use
- Most of the shirts seized were the identical design even though the counterfeiters came from different locations/states
- Inferior shirt quality – could be flammable
- Inferior ink quality – could be flammable, cause allergic reactions
- Counterfeiters keep them “stored” in their pants or other parts of their person until sale is made
- Often have strong, adverse odors

COUNTERFEIT PRODUCT SOLD AT WWE LIVE EVENTS:

We might not be able to find 100% of the counterfeit merchandise being sold at our events, but we must have the ability to seize 100% of what we do find.

COUNTERFEIT PRODUCT POSES A SIGNIFICANT PUBLIC SAFETY RISK!